

MENHIR tavolo / table

design Pio & Tito Toso

Menhir è un tavolo dalla struttura solida e geometrica, composta da quattro gambe sfaccettate come volumi cesellati, capaci di catturare la luce e restituirla in una danza di riflessi e ombre che ne esaltano la tridimensionalità. Il tavolo unisce rigore e plasticità e dialoga con gli ambienti architettonici contemporanei attraverso una forma essenziale, ma carica di espressività materica e progettuale.

Menhir is a table with a solid, geometric structure, featuring four faceted legs shaped like chiselled volumes. These catch and reflect the light in a dance of highlights and shadows, enhancing their three-dimensional quality. The table blends precision with fluidity, engaging with contemporary architectural spaces through an essential form rich in material expression and thoughtful design.
